

Step

into

School

Come in and read some lovely picture books with your child. We share a story together as a group at 9am and then have a small activity for those children who would like to join in. We will have guest speakers and teachers to give you information from time to time. Your child may also borrow a book to read at home.

Toddler Reading
Wednesday 8:45am
In the Library

