

NAIDOC Week is an opportunity for our community to learn about our First Nations cultures and histories. As a school community we will be participating in activities that highlight culture, language, dance and arts. Somerly Primary School will be hosting Indigenous guests during NAIDOC Week to share their stories and cultural heritage.

DAY	EVENTS & ACTIVITIES
Monday 27th June	NAIDOC Week Opening Ceremony Bindjareb Middars Dance Group will perform Smoking Ceremony and then share stories and dancers with our students and community
Tuesday 28th	Classes will participate in art, science and sport activities during the day Lunchtime activity in the library: Dreamtime stories
Wednesday 29th	Kindy and Pre-Primary—Sand Mural with Miki Saegusa AIEO Butler College and Butler college students Indigenous students will be invited to help establish a bush tucker garden
Thursday 30th	Classes will participate in art, science and sport activities during the day Lunchtime activity in the library: Dreamtime stories
Friday 1st July	NAIDOC assembly hosted by year 6 students